"SELECTING SEED CORN."

By far the most important crop grown in Virginia is corn. Its total valuation is more than four times as great as tobacco. In 1906, Virginia produced 45,188,000 bushels which, valued at 60cts per bushel, was worth $27,112,800. We have unexcelled natural advantages for corn culture, but the average yield per acre is far below the possibilities, being now about 24 bushels per acre as compared with 42 bushels in Ohio, and 39 bushels in Iowa. We can greatly increase the yield by better methods of culture, and by using better seed.

We have just received from the Virginia Agricultural Experiment Station, at Blacksburg, circular No. 4, "Selecting Seed-Corn," by Lyman Carrier, which gives detailed information upon this subject. The common practice of taking seed-corn at random from ears stored in the crib is largely responsible for low yields.

It is not enough to select the largest and most perfect ears; these ears should have been born by the most desirable plants. So it is best to select seed-corn now, while the ear is on the stalk Choose the largest and most perfect ears, well filled out at butt and tip, and with long, wedge-shaped kernals; born low down upon stout, medium-size, short-jointed plants. Prefer plants bearing two large ears. Store the ears in strings of fifteen, in a dry, warm, well-ventilated place, as a room over the kitchen. A little care in these respects often increases the yield five or more bushels per acre. An increase of even one bushel per acre next year in Virginia, as a result of careful selection of seed, would add over $1,000,000, to the wealth of the state, with no extra cost of fertilizing or cultivation. This is one of the most important subjects before the farmers of the state. This circular can be had by making application to the Virginia Agricultural Experiment station, Blacksburg, Va.

BULGARIA INDEPENDENT.

In the ancient capital of Tirnovo the independence of Bulgaria was proclaimed yesterday with Prince Ferdinand the Czar of the Bulgarians as a ruler. Czar of the Bulgarians is recognized to mean more than czar of Bulgaria, because it is a distinct intimation that he regards his country as having sovereignty over all the people of that blood in the near east

The Bulgarian coup was supported by Emperor Francis Joseph of Austria, who announced to the powers of Europe that he had annexed Bosnia and Herzegovina.

Russia will propose the calling of a congress of the powers for a general revision of the treaty of Berlin.

Great Britain has made mediatory proposals to Turkey and Bulgaria.

France will urge Turkey to accept Bulgarian independence as an accomplished fact.

Servia shows a disposition to fight rather than see Bosnia and Herzegovina annexed to Austria.

Turkey believes that the outcome will be a conference of the powers to consider the whole eastern question, and views Austria and Germany as having encouraged Bulgaria to act at this time. The effect of Bulgaria's action at this time is expected to be disastrous to the reform movement in Turkey.

The foreign offices of England, France, Germany and Russia are actively engaged in trying to prevent war. Russia will propose a congress of the powers to consider a revision of the terms of the treaty of Berlin.

The powers are disposed to regard the coup as an accomplished fact.

The Paris Temps publishes a dispatch from Vienna saying that the Bulgarian and Turkish armies are moving toward the frontier. This is not confirmed, and the belief is that Bulgaria will remain on the defensive.

DYNAMITE IN SCHOOL WALL.

What the police for the Bronx believe to be a plot to blow up Public School No 6, at Tremont and Bryant avenues, New York, was discovered yesterday and thwarted by Janitor Commers. This school is one of the largest in the Bronx, with a capacity of 2,000 pupils.

Janitor Commers found a large hole in the outer wall. It was newly made, and looked as though it had been gouged out with a metal tool. In the hole was a mass of wires, broken off at the edge of the hole. The wires were covered with a mass of strange composition, which was later found to be dynamite.

There was enough of the deadly explosive to destroy the whole building, and if exploded during the session of the school the lives of 1,500 to 2,000 children would have been sacrificed.

Make a note now to get Ely's Cream Balm if you are troubled with nasal catarrh, hay fever or cold in the head. It is purifying and soothing to the sensitive membrane that lines the nasal passages. It is made to overcome the disease, not to foul the practice by a short, desperate relief. There is no cocaine nor mercury in it. Do not be talked into taking a substitute for Ely's Cream Balm. All druggist sell it. Price 50c. Mailed by Ely Bros., 56 Warren Street, New York.

Elected!

This is a momentous period in the history of this country—two great parties battling for political supremacy. This is true in no greater degree with parties than with business houses and many times in the bustle and hurrah incident to increasing trade one is apt to represent an article 100 per cent better than it really is. It has been said that "a word to the wise is sufficient," but our experience has taught us that the bulk of the people buying goods today cannot be led by deceptive methods—they have to be shown. We want to say to you that any goods we place our stamp of approval on are just as we represent them. A trial order of any brand we advertise will prove what we say to be true. We want to submit for your consideration this week a few of our medium grades of Whiskies, which we guaranteed will give satisfaction.

ALEXANDRIA GAZETTE AND VIRGINIA ADVERTISER

TUESDAY EVENING, OCT. 6, 1908.

THE enthusiasm displayed at the democratic mass meeting in Baltimore last night was marked, and showed that there are many voters in the monumental city who will support Mr. Bryan. Between five and six thousand persons gathered, and Richmond Market Hall being unable to contain many who desired to hear the speakers, an overflow meeting was held outside. The speakers were: ex-Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York; Senator John W. Daniel, of Virginia; Senator Isidor Rayner, of Maryland; Col. Alexander S. Bacon, of New York, and a number of others. A sensation was created by a charge made by Judge Parker that Mr. George B. Cortelyou, while chairman of the republican national committee in 1904, solicited a large contribution from the Standard Oil Company; that a demand was made for $250,000, but that only $100,000 was given, which was spent in electing Mr. Roosevelt. Judge Parker said that he expected this would bring out another letter from the president. When he reproached Mr. Roosevelt for using Governor Haskell's record against Mr. Bryan and said that the democratic standard-bearer had "earned the right to be saved from such an insult," there was an outburst of enthusiasm lasting several minutes. Senator Daniel was at his best, and his eloquence, coupled with flashes of humor, were much enjoyed. He handled Mr. Roosevelt roughly, and showed the insincerity of the republican party in its bluster against trusts.

THE laying of the corner stone of the new school building for girls yesterday evening was witnessed by a large gathering. The programme of exercises which had been previously published in the Gazette was carried out in every detail. The ceremonies conducted by Alexandria-Washington Lodge of Masons were impressive and the music rendered by the quintette was spirited. The address of Rev. W. J. Morton, rector of Christ Church, was appropriate and interesting and the speaker was listened to with reverend gentleman spoke of the close relationship which exists between the school and the church as well as the state and city, and called attention to the obligations resting upon parents and the school trustees as well as the responsibility which should be shown by the pupils.

AS WAS stated yesterday, Bulgaria has declared her independence, and what has been predicted for a quarter of a century has come to pass and many fear this act of Prince Ferdinand will result in lighting the fires of European war. The dominion of Turkey in Europe is again threatened. Bulgaria has cast her pawn in the belief that she will so involve Europe as to make recognition of her claim necessary for the peace of the countries that framed the Berlin pact. The Triple Alliance will give immediate attention to the matter, looking to the pacification of the quarrel that has as its nominal occasion a quarrel between Bulgaria and Turkey over control of the Oriental Railroad.

AS WAS stated in the Gazette, eleven persons were burned to death in an incendiary fire in a tenement in New York early yesterday morning. Three barrels stuffed with rubbish soaked with oil blazed fiercely in the lower hall, cutting off the escape of the 50 or more persons who were sleeping on the upper floors. The scenes in connection with the fire were among the most horrible ever described. The firing of tenement houses in New York is becoming common, but the police, for some reason, fail to apprehend the fiends.

IN HIS speech at Asheville, N. C., Mr. Kern, the democratic candidate for vice president uttered a truth when he said: "Patriotic men everywhere will agree with me that the third term idea is no more hateful to the minds of the American people than that the president of this great nation shall undertake to name and dictate his own successor." But the great trouble now is that there are so few true patriots in the country.

AS ANTICIPATED, the medical board of army officers in the case of Col. William F. Stewart, U. S. A., placed in command of the ungarrisoned post at Fort Grant, Arizona, by President Roosevelt, yesterday reported Col. Stewart incapacitated for active service. This was as the president desired and he is commander-in-chief!

From Washington.

Correspondence of the Alexandria Gazette.

Washington, Oct. 6.

The subject of campaign contributions was discussed at length today by President Roosevelt and Geo. R. Sheldon, treasurer of the national republican committee. The announcement was authorized later that Sheldon came in response to an invitation. There can be no doubt that Judge Parker's charge made at Baltimore last night, that the Standard Oil Co. had contributed $100,000 to the Roosevelt campaign, was touched upon. Mr. Sheldon said that while money was not literally flowing into the party's coffers, the committee was far from being on the financial rocks. "It is never an easy matter to raise a large sum of money—one million or two million or even a half a million dollars by popular subscription," said Mr. Sheldon. "Campaign contributions are not as large nor made as freely as they were four, eight or twelve years ago; but they were not expected and such funds as were then contributed are not really needed now. Of course our policy for publicity has been somewhat of a hindrance, for many wealthy persons do not wish it to be known that they are making large contributions for any purpose whatever. Personally, I should like to see better results, but I am far from disheartened."

About sixty railway commissioners representing nearly every state in the union were present when President C. C. McChord, of Kentucky, called the 20th annual convention of the National Association of Railway Commissioners to order at the rooms of the Interstate Commerce Commission today. The commissioners expect to be in session for three days during which time many important subjects will be discussed. In his opening address to the convention President McChord laid particular stress upon the necessity for cooperative and concerted action between the Interstate Commerce Commission and the state railroad commissions.

Sergeant Mingo Sanders, colored, of the discharged Brownsville troops, has written a letter to the president asking that he be reinstated in the army.

Representative Clark, of Florida, has complained to President Roosevelt of alleged political activity of two federal officeholders in Florida. He says: "Hon. John W. Cheney, district attorney for the southern district of Florida, is the republican nominee for governor of this state, and Hon. W. R. O'Neal, postmaster at Orlando, Fla., is the republican nominee for congress from the Second congressional district of this state. Both of these men are now actively engaged in traveling over Florida, making partisan speeches for Taft and Sherman and for themselves. Is this in accord with your views?" The congressman adds that he does not object to the "partisan political activity of these republican federal officials" but believes the rules said to have been in vogue in the case of Messrs. McCleary and Glassock should be made uniform throughout all sections.

The second Atlantic submarine flotilla is encountering difficulty in making its way down the Atlantic coast. These vessels were due to join Admiral Arnold's command at Philadelphia Saturday for Founder's Week. Scarcely had they left Buzzards bay, however, where they had been waiting for the cruiser Yankee to be pulled off the rocks when they met a severe gale and were driven into Newport. Yesterday they left Newport with the expectation of making Delaware breakwater without a stop. Lieut. Courtney, commanding the flotilla, reports to the Navy Department that when the flotilla arrived off Montauk Point, the boilers of the tender Hist became deranged, and it was necessary for the Octopus to tow her to the New York yard. Consequently the fleet, reaching Philadelphia for Founder's Week.

Two coupon bonds for $500 each and a draft of $175 was a deposit made to the government conscience fund today by Pension Commissioner Warner. The contribution came from an old veteran who has been drawing a good pension for disabilities incurred in service. Having recovered, the veteran, felt that he should make restitution.

The only formal attention paid by the White House today to Judge Parker's charges of Standard Oil contributions to the Roosevelt campaign in 1904 was a statement that the charges had been fully answered by President Roosevelt at that time.

UNEARTH NEST OF SMUGGLERS

Disaster has overtaken what the New York customs officers believe to be one of the biggest glove-smuggling syndicates that ever has attempted to beat the government out of duties on this article of wearing apparel.

The passengers arriving on a German steamer from Mediterranean ports first were seized with about $2,000 worth of mosquetaires, and later a New York dealer was caught with $1,200 worth of the same articles of the same make, which he was alleged to posses unlawfully. A woman in Brooklyn next was found to have more than $500 worth of them in a manner declared to be improper, and finally, on Saturday, a butcher's wagon, while leaving the Italian Line steamer Nord America, was held up and its load of hay was found to cover a basket wherein lay $400 worth of the gloves.

A distinct connection has been found, so the special agents of the federal Treasury Department and the local custom house detectives say, among all these cases, so that already the evidence points to a widespread "conspiracy in gloves."

The majority of the prisoners in these glove seizures are Italians, some of them unable to speak a word of English, and in every instance the port of departure for the goods has been on the Mediterranean. That some of these prisoners promptly were bailed out in considerable sums, though they are not citizens or even have their residence in this country, being a class of prisoners who almost invariably have to go to jail pending the trial of their cases, is one of the features of the situation which the custom-house people say has been very suggestive to them. In consequence "the man higher up" is now their quest.

DR. LLOYD DECLINES.

Rev. Dr. Arthur Seldon Lloyd, for the past 12 years general secretary of the Protestant Episcopal Board of Foreign and Domestic Missions of New York, who was last Thursday elected coadjutor-bishop of the Episcopal Diocese of Maryland, has declined the proffered honor. This Dr. Lloyd did yesterday afternoon in a letter addressed to Rev. Dr. Arthur Chifton Powell, rector of Grace Church, Baltimore, chairman of the delegation appointed to urge Dr. Lloyd to accept the honor bestowed upon him. While further steps may be taken to induce Dr. Lloyd to reverse his decision, there is no prospect whatever that he will change his mind, which was made up after the most serious consideration and the most deliberate thought.

MASS MEETING IN BALTIMORE.

The democrats of Baltimore held a mass meeting in Richmond Market Hall [illegible] Judge Alton B. Parker, of New York; Senator John W. Daniel, of Virginia, and Col. Alexander S. Bacon, of New York. Senator Rayner presided and made a brief speech. There was an overflow meeting. The attendance was between 5,000 and 6,000.

In his speech Judge Parker said:

"The continuance of a political party in power with all the offices under its control encourages the upbuilding of graft and grafters. The careful business man appoints to a responsible position a man whose past record is unassailable in every respect. The government should exercise similar care. Judge Taft admits that trusts and combinations have been built up within the past 10 years. He never tried to stop them. Why did not the republican party demand revision of the tariff at the last session? The word revision in the plank may mean cutting the tariff down, but it may also mean building the tariff up. By attacking Haskell, Roosevelt wished the people to get the impression that Haskell was the connecting link between the Standard Oil Company and the democratic party. The issues this year seem to me a great deal more important than some of these two-penny things that have been discussed."

Senator Daniel followed Judge Parker, and was greeted with a mild round of applause, when Senator Rayner introduced him as one who would some day convince the nation that he was worthy to be president.

In the main body of his speech the senator based his theme on the work which had been accomplished and not accomplished by President Roosevelt, rather than upon the qualifications of Mr. Bryan. "I hope" he said, that "President Roosevelt will have finer game in Africa than he has had with the trusts. While making a whoop louder than the wildest Indian, I doubt very much if the republican party has ever taken a scalp. [Laughter.] The picture of a cheating merchant behind the cell is a far better deterrent and object lesson than threats and whoops. Elect Bryan and he will go into the trusts with scalping knife in hand Bryan may have erred. But let us forget his errors. He is a forceful man—a man this country should be proud of. He has convictions of his own and does not follow the dictates of another man, as does Taft. He has moral courage, which forces him to speak what he thinks. It is the striving man who makes mistakes. Every inventor breaks a half dozen models before he completes his work. At last he will achieve his end if he has the brains, the ability. So with Mr. Bryan. He may have made mistakes and we all know that he is brilliant, has ideas and brains and this time he will be the master of the situation and be elected with great eclat to the presidency in November. So if he has erred, let us forgive him, for his heart is yours and he loves you."

ANOTHER WONDER OF SCIENCE.

Biology Has Proved That Dandruff is Caused by a Germ.

Science is doing wonders these days in medicine as well as in mechanics. Since Adam lived the human race has been troubled with dandruff, for which no hair preparation has heretofore proved a successful cure until Newbro's Herpicide was put on the market. It is a scientific preparation that kills the germ that makes dandruff or scurf by digging into the scalp to get at the root of the hair, where it saps the vitality, causing itching scalp, falling hair and finally baldness. Without dandruff hair must grow luxuriantly. It is the only destroyer of dandruff.

Today's Telegraphic News

Will Not Declare War.

Paris, Oct. 6.—Heeding the advice of France and England, Sultan Abdul Hamid has decided to postpone a declaration of war against Bulgaria pending a conference of the powers.

This action is believed to mark a sudden turn for the better in the Balkan situation and may be the means of preventing a war.

All the disinterested powers, with the exception of Germany, are now agreed on the call for a conference. The kaiser has not expressed himself.

Foreign Ministers Pichon of France, Iswolsky of Russia, and Dr. Stancioff, the Bulgarian agent in Paris, held a long conference today at the conclusion of which they visited Premier Clemenceau with whom British Ambassador Bertie was in conference.

The announcement of the call for the conference and Turkey's willingness to hold off a declaration of war followed.

Premier Clemenceau stated that he considered the situation so much relieved that he would leave tomorrow night on a campaigning tour to insure his reelection to the Senate next January.

Belgrade, Oct. 6.—All first class Servian reservists, numbering 120,000 men, are called to arms by a royal ukase issued today. The war spirit is everywhere manifest and telegrams from the various cities tell of street demonstrations and a demand for war against Austria. The hated against Franz Joseph, already of long standing, has been heightened by Austria's plans to force Servia and Roumania into the new Balkan federation.

London, Oct. 6.—An improved tone in London stock exchange today reflected the confidence of the public in an ultimate settlement of the Balkan trouble without recourse to war.

Vienna, Oct. 6.—Skirmishing between Turkish and Bulgarian troops is reported in dispatches from frontier garrison commanders.

In an official note received by the emperor today Czar Nicholas notified Austria that the developements of the past 24 hours in the Balkans are unsatisfactory to Russia and St. Petersburg will no longer observe the treaty of Berlin, which other nations are openly violating.

The note is accepted as the most ominous indication of a continental muddle.

While the czar gives no intimation in his note of what Russia expects, he declares St. Petersburg will demand a share in the reapportionment of the Balkan states, and the belief is here that this share will be nothing short of a passage through the Dardanelles.

Vienna, Oct. 6.—In order to get his military forces in better shape and to allay the fears of the Hungarians, who oppose the annexation of Bosnia and Herzegovnia by the dual Austria-Hungarian empire, Emperor Franz Josef has decided to delay the annexation proclamation for a few days. The announcement was to have been made today.

The emperor has just concluded a long conference with his advisers, at which the program of delay was agreed upon.

Servia and Roumania, included in the proposed Balkan federation, are today mobilizing armies under the impression that Austria intends to force them into a federation under Bulgaria's control. They demand an autonomous government in the proposed federation.

The Turkish and Bulgarian troops are today reported as drawing close together near the frontier, with the imminency of a clash without a formal declaration of war having been made.

Victims of Hazing Disappear.

Lexington, Ky., Oct. 6.—Bound, gagged and locked in a box car by hazing students, Willis E. Smith, a freshman of Kentucky State College, has disappeared, and today the grand jury is preparing to probe what may be a ghastly mystery, and police and railroad men all over this section are working desperately to ascertain his fate. Smith disappeared two weeks ago. Not a word has come of or from him since that time. If he is still in the box car in which he was placed by his companions he has died a terrible death.

Despite half-hearted denial of the hazing episode by the students and faculty of the Kentucky college the general belief here is that Smith, who was a delicate young fellow of twenty, has perished as the result of the hazing and when the Fayette county grand jury convenes every member of the sophomore and freshman classes will be examined under oath as well as a statement of townsmen and boys who are declared to have heard the students discussing the probable tragic end of young Smith.

Deep Waterways Convention.

Chicago, Oct. 6.—Hundreds of legislators, financiers and publicists from all parts of the country are arriving on every train to attend the Deep Waterways Convention. The first session will begin at 10 a. m. tomorrow when Bishop Fallows will formally open the congress. By that time the number of delegates and visitors will number between two and five thousand persons, including W. H. Taft and William J. Bryan, candidates for president, and perhaps T. L. Hisgen and Eugene Chafin, nominees respectively of the independence and prohibition parties. Forty governors and a large number of senators and congressmen have accepted invitations to be present.

Bryan and Taft will both address the convention and sit together at a table at a banquet tomorrow evening.

Alleged Election Frauds.

Columbus, O., Oct. 6.—Charges of bribery and illegal voting are made today by Wayne Wheeler, state superintendent of the anti-saloon league, as the result of yesterday's local option election. A court investigation will be asked. Six counties went "dry," while only one, Defiance, voted to retain the saloons. The charges of illegal voting and bribery are in connection with the result of Defiance county and in Pickaway county, the latter going "dry" by a narrow margin. Twenty-eight of the 88 counties in Ohio are now dry, 839 saloons having been voted out of business. Elections have been set for nearly 20 additional counties.

Castro Ill.

Willemstad, Curacao, Oct. 6.—Messages from Caracas today say the condition of President Castro of Venezuela has taken a turn for the worse, and that the gravest fears are entertained for his recovery. Castro was taken ill while at his summer home at Barquisimeto.

Town Elections.

New Haven, Conn., Oct. 6.—Incomplete returns from the small town elections for town officers and of the license question show the liquor men made a small gain. The prohibitions, however, succeeded in putting the towns along the east shore of the sound between New Haven and Stony creek in the "dry" column. This will put several pleasure resorts out of the liquor business.

Returns from 46 towns voting on the liquor question show that 31 license towns remained wet, that seven changed from wet or dry and that 8 changed from dry to wet; six remained dry. The large places, Danbury, Middletown, Stamford, Norwalk, and Torrington remained in the license column.

Suicide at Niagara Falls.

Niagara Falls, N. Y., Oct. 6.—An unknown woman ended her early troubles in the crashing waters of Niagara today. A little knot of early morning tourists grouped on Prospect point, saw a smiling face, crowned with a great black plumed picture hat sweep over the smooth, curving brink of the American falls as a white hand waved a farewell. Somewhere among the rocks the body is being ground in the ceaseless churn at the base of the cataract. The woman it is believed, came from Saginaw, Mich. The point where she leaped into the stream is 200 feet from the brink of the falls. In less than a minute she disappeared, while a score of visitors stood helpless uttering hysterical calls and cries.

Bitten by Mad Dog.

New York, Oct. 6.—Bitten by a maddened pet dog, Mrs. Harvey Day of Elizabeth, N. J., is dying of rabies at her home and her husband and two other persons are menaced by the disease. Mrs. Day has reached the last stages of hydrophobia and has to be held in a straight jacket. She was bitten while attempting to release the dog from its leash. As it ran up the street Mr. Day Mrs. Samuel Doly and a letter carrier were attacked. All the victims underwent the Pasteur treatment, but physicians believe Mrs. Day brought the disease on through worry. The other victims are in a highly nervous condition and it is feared they cannot escape the disease.

Debs in Boston.

Boston, Oct. 6.—Boston is amazed by the enthusiasm of the welcome given Eugene V. Debs, the socialist candidate for president. Debs's speech at Faneuil Hall last night was marked by one of the wildest outbursts that ever greeted a candidate in the Hub. His departure from the North station this morning was the signal for another demonstration. Red fire, red flags, red language. Everything in town apparently was red from the time the famous "red special" brought the candidate into town from his tour of Connecticut and Massachusetts.

Suicide.

New York, Oct. 6.—"I find myself too old to get work in New York. I can't sleep. In such cases nature—perhaps God—points the way out—" wrote Milton F. Cahill, aged 52, who shot himself through the heart today in his room at 234 west Fourteenth street. Beside an unsigned note in which he declared he was going insane and the above statement Cahill left two letters, one addressed to Mrs. H. S. Bennett, of Oberlin, O., and another to his brother-in-law, William J. Brown, of Brooklyn.

That Disputed Game.

Cincinnati, O., Oct. 6.—When the board of directors of the National League met this morning it was said they had reached an understanding and would probably sustain the decision of President Pulliam, who declared the New York-Chicago game of September 23 a tie. In the event that the decision goes against the Chicago Club, President Murphy intimates he will carry the case to a civil court.

Cincinnati, Oct. 6.—The commission decides a tie game between New York and Chicago. They have to play it over on the Pole Grounds if New York want to play it.

Appeal Taken.

Philadelphia, Oct. 6.—An appeal has been taken in the Hepburn commodity clause case by the government on the ground that the lower court was wrong in holding the clause not to be a proper exercise of the congressional powers as to the regulation of commerce. It is contended that the court erred in ruling the clause confiscatory. It is understood that the government will ask the supreme court to take up the case immediately owing to its importance.

Order Cancelled.

Toronto, Ont., Oct. 6.—It is stated here that a prominent London bond house has cancelled its outstanding bids for various Canadian municipal bonds aggregating $9,000,000. The step is regarded as a precautionary one taken in view of the uncertainties of the Bulgarian situation.

New York Stock Market.

New York, Oct. 5.—There was a disposition to watch the foreign market position closely and advices had much to do with the strength shown in earlier trading that was well maintained all through the first hour. Price movements after their sharp advance became narrow and without much feature.

Russia's naval expenditures for the coming year, according to the budget submitted to the Douma today, will be $44,067,500, an increase of $616,000 over last year. Four battleships, of 23,000 tons each, are included in the new construction program.

Mr. Bryan in Iowa.

Perry, Ia., Oct. 6.—William J. Bryan began a tour of Iowa at Valley Junction today, and before night will have made 20 speeches. A uniformed club of 200 men carrying a banner inscribed "Valley Junction Club for Bryan" greeted the candidate when he arrived at that place. He was ticketed to Des Moines and was shaving as the train came to a stop but wiping the lather off, he announced that he was at the disposal of the local committee. After breakfast he went direct to an improvised speaker's stand and addressed a crowd numbering 2,000.

"You people have sense enough to control our government," he declared, "and you have sense enough to determine the influence of corporation contributions. Even Judge Taft and President Roosevelt do not deny it and hold a different view. I am willing to trust my election to the great American people."

He then discussed labor and the trust.

WANTS ANSWERS.

How many trusts has the Roosevelt administration "busted?"

How many trust officials criminally prosecuted have been put in jail?

With 223 new trusts born under the McKinley and Roosevelt administrations, and none effectively put out of business, how long will it take the republican party to free the people from the grip of the 287 trusts now fattening upon them?

These are some of the questions Josephus Daniels, chairman of the publicity bureau of the democratic national committee, asks Attorney General Bonaparte to answer.

Mr. Daniels asserts that the attorney general in his recent reply to the inquiry for a statement showing how many trusts doing business in the United States had been prosecuted by the Department of Justice, did not furnish the information desired, but, instead, confused the prosecutions under the Sherman anti-trust law with the prosecutions of railroads and individuals under other acts.

In an open letter to the attorney general, Mr. Daniels renews his questions in categorical form with comments and insists on clear answers to the points Mr. Bonaparte previously evaded.

WOMAN ADMITS SHE IS UGLY.

The Ellis Island, N. Y., immigration authorities who had detained Miss Mary Johnson, a Canadian woman, when she arrived at New York on the steamer New York under the assumed name of "Frank Woodhull," and wearing men's clothes, yesterday decided to allow her to proceed to her destination, New Orleans, still garbed in masculine attire. Miss Johnson, 50 years old and of masculine appearance, had declared to the authorities that having been born unprepossession as a woman she had found herself practically shut off from earning a living, and that only as a man had she been able, during the past 15 years, to earn a regular income as a book agent and maintain her respectability.

CITY WORK.

A fact worthy of consideration confronts the workingman of this city. It has often been wondered—by those who have money to invest and who are willing to spend it—why the Alexandria contractors can not do work as cheaply as the contractors of other sections. The foreign contractor has all the disadvantage. He is unacquainted with conditions, he has to bring a great deal of paraphernalia with him; he has to hire unknown help, and yet in the last year some of the largest contracts in this city have been given to outside men. If these people can do the work and make a reasonable profit—which they are compelled to do in order to carry on business—why not the Alexandrians? It has been often said that "the proof of the pudding is the eating." The City Council recently appropriated $4,800 to improve the clerk's office and the Corporation court rooms which necessitated the bringing of the clerk's office to the first floor of the market building at Fairfax and Cameron streets. The main work of the contract was opened to bidders and an out-of-town firm was the lowest, but the city engineer and committee on public property thought this bid too high and concluded to do the work themselves. The result was that by employing Alexandria mechanics, paying them the ruling wages, working the regular number of hours the committee under the supervision of the city engineer, under the regular advertised proposal, saved the city over $1,100—that is he did the work advertised in the contract with Alexandria labor $1,100 cheaper than the lowest bidder. The committee then went to work and placed in this building over $600 worth of extra work and are now to the good over $500 under the lowest bidder. It looks as if the Alexandria contractor should figure closer in order to secure work. The time when a man can get rich on one or two contracts has passed. People who build are as wise as the builder and want value received for the money expended. The city engineer—Mr. E. C. Dunn—was assisted in the work by Messrs. Chas. B. Marshall, C. J. W. Summers, W. W. Ballenger and W. H. Hellmuth, the joint committee on public property, who deserve a great deal of credit for the work done.

ATTEMPTS SUICIDE.

Joseph Trammell, who killed his brother-in-law, Frank Peacock, in Fairfax on Friday night last, attempted to commit suicide on Sunday night by cutting his throat with a razor, in Fairfax county jail. Trammell found an old rusty razor in his cell, and cut his throat on the left side from the ear to the windpipe. He severed the arteries and cord in the neck on that side. Physicians say his chances for recovery are good unless blood poisoning develops. Trammell was discovered about 9 o'clock by Jailer Cross, who was making his rounds. When he called to Trammell he received no reply. He unlocked the cell door and found Trammell lying in a pool of blood on the floor. Dr. Moncure was summoned, and his prompt arrival probably saved the man's life. When Trammell had recovered Sunday night sufficiently to understand what was said to him he made it known that he committed the act after he heard some one outside his cell say his mother was dead. About 8:30 o'clock Sunday Trammell called Jailer Cross and asked him if he had heard his mother was dead. The jailer replied he had not. Trammell said he heard two men talking outside his cell, and they said Mrs. Trammell had died Sunday afternoon. Thinking his one hope of getting out of jail was gone, and of losing his mother's support in the trial for his life, he decided to commit suicide. The parents of the alleged murderer furnished bail in $1,000 yesterday morning and Trammell was taken to his home. He was resting comfortably last night.

DEMOCRATIC MEETING.

The committee on speakers of the Bryan, Kern and Carlin Club have received a letter from Mr. H. St. George Tucker, candidate for the democratic nomination for governor of Virginia, accepting an invitation to address the democratic voters of this city next Tuesday night, October 13, at the Opera House. The committee has also invited Mr. R. T. W. Duke, of Charlottesville, to be present and also address the voters on that occasion.

The committee has invited ex-Governor A. J. Montague to speak in this city on the 20th of October and they have no doubt of his acceptance of the invitation.

Tonight the club will hold a business meeting and desire the presence of all the members.

IMPORTANT CASE SETTLED.

The Ogden suit against Thomas H. Robbins, of Washington, and others, involving the Phoebe Voorhees tract of 357 acres of land, in the upper end of Spotsylvania county, has been settled by compromise between parties and decree will be entered on Monday in the Circuit Court of Spotsylvania confirming the agreement, at which time commissioners will be appointed to make sale of said land. J. R. and Harry B. Caton, represented the plaintiff.

AROUND THE WHARVES.

A very heavy fog enveloped the river front this morning making the air damp and disagreeable. The Norfolk steamer encountered the fog at daybreak and had it as an unpleasant companion all the way to this city, making the steamer about an hour late. Sailing vessels had great difficulty in navigating. Things are quiet around the wharves. Since the close of the excursion season things are dull for the fellow who made his living on the river and at least a dozen can be seen around the wharves, like Micawber, waiting for something to turn up.

Step in at the ELKTON and try a HOT OYSTER POT PIE tonight.

MINISTERIAL ASSOCIATION.

The Ministerial Association met yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock. The following ministers were present: Revs. C. D. Bulla, W. F. Watson, J. R. Sevier, C. K. Hobbs, G. I. Humphreys, Edgar Carpenter and W. W. Van Arsdale. In view of the laying of the cornerstone of the new public school building only a brief session was held. After an informal discussion, the meeting adjourned to meet the first Monday in November.

TAKEN AWAY.

Many railway men were at the station house last night to bid good-bye to Charles O. Tullock, who was to leave for Knoxville, Tenn., today, in company with Sheriff C. W. Suffrage, where as stated before he is wanted for an assault on a resident of that place with a beer bottle. He left on the 8:35 train this morning and about a score of his fellow workmen followed him to the train. He took his family with him and expects to make his home in Knoxville.

W. C. T. U.

The Virginia Convention of the W. C. T. U. held in Roanoke last week was the largest for many years, 164 delegates being present. Mrs. Howard M. Hoge was re-elected president. Mrs. Amy Weech delivered the address Wednesday evening. At the close of her address Mrs. Weech was made a life patron of the Virginia W. C. T. U. This means that as a mark of appreciation for Mrs. Weech's work in the state, $25 was paid into the treasury of the Virginia W. C. T. U.

POLICE COURT.

[Justice H. B. Caton presiding.]

The following cases were disposed of this morning:

Emma Cole, arrested by Officers Ferguson, Rawlett and Bell charged with drunken and disorderly conduct, was fined $5.

Two young white men arrested at the same time in this woman's house, were fined $5 each.

John Quill, colored, arrested by Officer Knight for assault and cutting Chas. Baltimore, also colored, was fined $10, as was also Baltimore for disorderly conduct and fighting.

LEE CAMP.

The monthly meeting of R. E. Lee Camp was held last night at Confederate Veterans' Hall when considerable business of interest to the camp was transacted. Delegates to the Grand Camp which meets at Charlottesville on Tuesday the 20th were elected as follows: John Hooff, Capt. Jos. P. Wooddy, Alexander Lyles, C. S. Taylor, Dr. J. A. Marshall and Byrd C. Willis. The present and all past commanders of the camp are delegates.

NEGRO AND A KNIFE.

Justice Caton had another case of a negro and a knife this morning when John Quill was accused of cutting Chas. Baltimore. Judging from the appearance of the two one would have thought that Quill was the one mostly abused, as his black "top piece" was tied up in a piece of lily white cloth and resembled a snow ball in a bucket of ink. The justice heard the evidence and concluded they both were guilty of disorder and imposed a fine of $10 on each.

LOST AND FOUND.

The police were notified this morning that Mrs. Mary Dodson an elderly resident of No. 552 south Patrick street, had been missing from her home since 7:30 o'clock last night. Mrs. Dodson was found today in Fairfax county about 15 miles from her home, when it was discovered that her mind was somewhat impaired. She was brought to her home in this city. She had wandered in the country all night.

MEETINGS.

The stockholders of the Washington Brewing Company met here yesterday and adjourned till December 7 without transacting any business.

The Washington Herb Company met yesterday and elected the following officers: Clarence Corson, president and treasurer; M. M. Flannery, secretary and general manager. These with J. P. Tower, W. W. Wright and G. W. Brown were chosen directors.

Pulman; vice president, Roger Lee Moore; secretary, C. Conway Brawner; treasurer, Chas. W. King; business manager, William F. White.

VIRGINIA HUNTING GOOD.

Hunting in the counties of Maryland and Virginia bordering on the Potomac this season is above the average. Wild turkeys and partridges are plentiful, especially in King George and Westmoreland counties, Virginia. The improved conditions are said to be due to the protective measures adopted by the Virginia legislature two years ago, which put a ban on the indiscriminate shooting of game.

TRADES COUNCIL.

The regular meeting of Alexandria Trades Council was held last night and business of a routine nature was transacted. It is the purpose of this organization to make the meetings interesting in the future and there will be good speakers at the next meeting.

BOUGHT A DOLL.

A second-hand dealer went to the residence of a citizen of the Second ward this morning and bought a doll baby, which was of no use to the family. He was driving along with his treasure and one would have thought it was a band wagon judging from the number of children following him begging for it. Inasmuch as the dealer in question has 25 grandchildren the chance of an outsider getting the doll was out of the question.

THE ARMORY CASE.

After hearing arguments in the injunction proceedings in the case of Company G, First Virginia Regiment against the Alexandria Light Infantry for the possession of Armory Hall, Judge Barley of the Corporation Court yesterday evening took the matter under advisement, and it is expected that he will announce his opinion within the next few days. The arguments were heard in Judge Barley's office. Messrs. Norton & Boothe represented Company G and Mr. S. G. Brent appeared in behalf of the Alexandria Light Infantry.

HAS HIS HAT-YET.

A gentleman of this city in 1884 made and won a bet from a federal officeholder that Cleveland would be elected. The wager was a fine hat and after Cleveland's first inauguration the hat was carefully put away. The gentleman referred to has again donned the hat and says he feels confident that Bryan will win.

TO BE MARRIED.

The marriage of Mr. Henry Kicherer of this city and Miss Hattie Bailey, of Warrenton, will be solemnized tomorrow night at 7:30 o'clock at the residence of the groom's brother, Mr. Chas. Kicherer, corner Prince and Lee streets. The ceremony will be performed by Rev. J. J. May, of the German Lutheran Church. After the marriage a supper will be served.

ANNIVERSARY AND FALL OPENING.

Wednesday and Thursday, October 7 and 8.

Millinery, Coats, Suits, Waists, Dress Goods, Silks, Furs, etc.

We have very good reason to celebrate this 5th Birthday—better reasons for celebration perhaps than have been given this year to any other retail house in this city. The past twelve months have been the most successful in our career, and this in the face of conditions which have left some sorrowful records in local and national business life. There is only one way that we can think of to make you as glad. We were born 5 years ago, and we now find ourselves glad to have been born. We are here to do you good—that is, by saving you money on things you need, and at the same time remembering our most worthy institution—the Alexandria Hospital, and we shall not forget the others in the near future.

Those spending 50c and upwards will receive a souvenir in honor of our fifth birthday.

Remember! 10 per cent of all money received will go to this institution.

ROSENFELD'S,

518-20 King Street. Alexandria, Va.

AMUSEMENTS.

The motion picture houses are doing a thriving business and judging from the crowds visiting them nightly they are putting on good shows. King street was literally alive with people last night eager to gain admittance to the three houses.

At the Alexandria Amusement Company a programme consisting of "A Good Repentance," "Three Maiden Ladies and a Bull," "Copenhagen Zoological Gardens" and "Stratagem Rewarded" will be shown. All good and amusing pictures.

The Elite Picture Company opened the week last night to a large and appreciative audience. Tonight they will repeat "The Vestal Virgins." This is a beautiful hand-colored picture. "Cowboys' Elopement," "Thieving Hand," "I Won a Pig," and "Sold Again." These are very amusing pictures. Mr. J. A. Trunnell will sing "That's Gratitude," and "Somebody Lied." The show is first class in every particular.

The Bennett's seen at the Alexandria Opera House last night in a comedy sketch entitled "Bustler's Boarders," pleased large audiences. The same people will appear tonight in a new sketch. Mr. C. Busey will be heard in popular songs. Eight subjects of moving pictures of great interest will be shown.

Sally's Iron.

In describing some of her associates of the stage, Ellen Terry, in McClure's Magazine, tells of her dresser, Sarah Holland. She had an extraordinarily open mind, writes Miss Terry, and was ready to grasp each new play as it came along as a separate and entirely different field of operations.

She was extremely methodical and only got flurried once in a blue moon. When we went to America and made the acquaintance of that dreadful thing, a "one night stand," she was as precise and particular about having everything nice and in order for me as if we were going to stay in the town a month. Down went my neat square of white drugget. All the lights in my dressing room were arranged as I wished. Everything was unpacked and ironed.

One day when I came into some American theater to dress I found Sally nearly in tears.

"What's the matter with you, Sally?" I asked.

"I 'aven't 'ad a morsel to heat all day, dear, and I can't 'eat my iron."

"Eat your iron, Sally! What do you mean?"

"'Ow am I to iron all this, dear?" wailed my faithful Sally, picking up my Nance Oldfield apron and a few other trifles. "It won't get 'ot!"

Until then I really thought that Sally was being sardonic about an iron as a substitute for victuals.

Telephone Manners.

Do telephones lead to politeness or otherwise? When they first came into use the answer to this question would have been emphatically in the negative, but now that they are almost universally prevalent an era of good manners and "thank you's" seems to be in full swing. In some communities it is not even possible to quarrel over the telephone, although the two women who took part in the following conversation came near it:

"Hello! Is this Mrs. Weston?"

"Yes."

"This is your next door neighbor, Mrs. Lawrence. I thought you might be interested to know that at the present moment your son Thomas is sitting on one of the sheets which are bleaching on my lawn and is building a large pile of mud on it."

"Oh, thank you, Mrs. Lawrence!" exclaimed the mother. "And may I return the favor by informing you that your setter Rab has just rooted up my two new rosebushes and that he seems to be chewing the buds!"

"Oh, indeed! Thank you! Goodby!"

"Not at all. Thank you! Goodby!"

Left Handed Finance.

He was a young railroad man and went the pace. He had to borrow money to keep "his end up," and he fell into the clutches of a relentless money collector.

"I really am trying my best to pay back the coin I owe you," he pleaded.

"I don't see much evidence of it," was the grim answer. "What are you doing?"

"I am buying a lottery ticket every month," answered the hopeful financier.—San Francisco Call.

Wanted Them All.

Julia Ward Howe was once talking with a dilapidated bachelor, who retained little but his conceit. "It is time now," he said pompously, "for me to settle down as a married man, but I want so much. I want youth, health, wealth, of course; beauty, grace"—

"Yes," said Mrs. Howe sympathetically, "you poor man, you do want them all."

Still Vacant.

He was a dude of the would be masher type, and, tripping down the aisle of the parlor car, he dropped into a seat beside a pretty girl.

"Nobody—er—occupying this seat with you, miss?" he queried.

With a disdainful look, she replied in a tone redolent with sarcasm: "No, sir. Nobody yet."—Chicago News.

A Xantippe Outwitted.

An Englishman of Lymington had the misfortune to live in a continuous quarrel with his wife, who was a modern Xantippe and threatened in case she survived him to dance over his grave. It was her lot to outlive him, but it was not so easy to carry out her threat. The husband had the precaution to make an injunction in his will requiring his body to be buried in the sea near his residence and without ceremony. The injunction was complied with.

Succeeded.

"No, sir," said the stern parent, "I cannot give my consent—at least not now. Before I will think of confiding my daughter to your care you must succeed in doing something."

"Oh, I've done that. I succeeded in kissing her last night after she had assured me that I never could until you had given your approval."

Expensive.

"No; I've decided never to accept friendly advice any more."

"Why not? It doesn't cost you anything."

"Well, I've found out that it almost invariably costs you your friends."—Exchange.

More Than Enough is Too Much.

To maintain health, a mature man or woman needs just enough food to repair the waste and supple energy and body heat. The habitual consumption of more food than is necessary for these purposes is the prime cause of stomach troubles, rheumatism and disorders of the kidneys. If troubled with indigestion, revise your diet, let reason and not appetite control and take a few doses of Chamberlain's Stomach and Liver Tablets and you will soon be all right again.
